

Online safety is a team sport

Online safety isn't just an individual responsibility it's something we all contribute to. Everyone has a role to play in keeping Aotearoa New Zealand safer online, whether you're a student, parent, teacher, colleague or community member.

For access to free Netsafety Week webinars on important topics, resources, activities and more go to netsafe.org.nz/netsafety-week-2026

Te Rourou
One Antegora Foundation

∞ Meta

SNAPCHAT

COMMUNITY PARTNER

Google

kendons
 your business advisor

Microsoft

netsafety
week 2026
Powered by netsafe

NETSAFETY WEEK 2026 • 17-23 AUGUST

Online safety is a team sport

PLAY YOUR PART

Keeping Aotearoa New Zealand safe online takes all of us. Whether you're a parent, teacher, student, colleague or community member, everyone has a role to play. Take part in Netsafety Week 2026 with free events, expert advice and practical tools to help keep yourself, your whānau and your community safer online.

FREE WEBINARS ON:

Scams

Young people online

Digital parenting

Online subcultures

Artificial intelligence

Women's safety

Rainbow communities

Community moderation

FREE RESOURCES

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Find out more and discover the full programme and free resources at netsafe.org.nz/netsafety-week-2026

MAJOR PARTNERS

Te Rourou
One Aotearoa Foundation

Meta

SNAPCHAT

TikTok

ROBLOX

COMMUNITY PARTNER

Google

SUPPORTING PARTNERS

kendons
your business advisor

Microsoft

netsafety
week 2026
Powered by netsafe